Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a).

We further determined you qualify as a private operating foundation under IRC Section 4942(j)(3). We'll treat you as a private operating foundation as long as you continue to meet the requirements of Section 4942(j)(3).

We're approving your individual grant-making procedures under IRC Section 4945(g)(1). This means scholarships you grant according to your submitted procedures won't be taxable expenditures under Section 4945(d)(3). We determined awards made under these procedures are "scholarship or fellowship grants" within the meaning of Section 117(a) and are excludable from the recipient's gross income, subject to the limitations provided in Section 117(b) including to the extent that such grants are actually used for qualified tuition and related expenses within the meaning of Section 117(b)(2).

We're approving your individual grant-making procedures under IRC Section 4945(g)(3). This means grants or educational loans awarded according to your submitted procedures won't be taxable expenditures under Section 4945(d)(3).

You're required to file Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation or Section 4947(a)(1) Trust Treated as Private Foundation, annually, whether or not you have income or activity during the year. If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PF" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PF, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Private Foundations, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

We sent a copy of this letter to your representative as indicated in your power of attorney.

Sincerely,
